

LDI (SEN) TEACHER

Northfields is seeking to employ a LDI (SEN) Teacher for the IB Primary School. The candidate will provide additional or alternate support required through push-in, and at times, through pull-out lessons for students who have learning plans in place.

The potential candidate will have a direct line report to the LDI Coordinator.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Help to identify the specific needs of students with additional educational needs.
- Plan for, monitor and evidence the progress of students in collaboration with the class teachers. Evidence of planning is in the form of an Individual Educational Plan. Learning evidence is kept on file and samples uploaded to Managebac
- Ensure appropriate provision for all students with unique educational needs.
- Meet regularly with parents to discuss their child's progress.
- Liaise with external professionals to assess a student's needs and to provide intervention programs in addition to what the school can provide.
- Provide advice and support to class teachers regarding meeting learning diversity through strategies to help children with unique learning needs as well as fine motor development difficulties, social skills difficulties, behavior difficulties, attention difficulties, organizational skills difficulties, etc.
- Organize regular student case conferences involving the relevant class teachers, specialist teachers, learning diversity teachers, EAL teachers and external professionals where appropriate.
- Attend student conference meetings, minute all meetings and upload onto Managebac.
- Ensure accommodations and modifications are in place.

Safeguarding Commitment

Northfields is committed to safeguarding the health, well-being and safety of our students by creating and maintaining an open, safe, caring and supportive environment. We aim to foster a strong sense of community, respect and discipline while promoting positive student-life experiences. Safeguarding and Child Protection are the direct responsibility of all members of the community: The Board of Directors, Leadership and Management, Staff and Volunteers.
